More Morris dance cancellations

This week White Horse Morris should have been dancing (for the first time in a long while) at The Barford Inn, Barford St Martin (best pronounced with a French accent) in collaboration with high-stepping Sarum Morris. Unfortunately this has had to be cancelled as too many of our members are still marooned on desert islands, with their long reading-lists, or are locked up in quarantine. Due to the shortage of interesting-enough-to-publish written articles, this week no fewer than three new castaways have been sent for isolation in the southern seas and we are now running out of islands to send them to. Whoever is next will face either the Isle of Dogs or Rockall; a tough deal either way. A spokesman for the Preservation of Peace in Rural Barford St. Martin described the cancellation as “a merciful reprieve”. Undaunted, WHM Bagwoman Helen Sanderson said in reply, “We will return.”

- 1. Combine peanut butter and caster sugar.
- 2. Add the egg and mix to form a dough. (It may look a bit sticky but don't panic)
- 3. Using a spoon take walnut sized chunks and roll into a ball. (Because of the oil in the peanut butter it doesn't stick to your hands)
- 4. Place onto 2 lined baking trays and press them down with the back of a fork. (Makes 16-20)
- 5. Bake at 160°C fan/gas 4 for about 12 mins.
